WORK EXPERIENCE

LOGISTICS ADMINISTRATOR

Leather Gallery | May 2025 - September 2025

Accountable for the daily fulfilment of online orders and for coordinating delivery between the warehouse and the customer.

- Managed the daily delivery of online orders, tracking each order from receipt through to dispatch and completion
- Coordinated between the warehouse and the customer to ensure deliveries were completed efficiently and to schedule
- Liaised directly with customers on the progress of their orders, keeping them informed through to delivery

DIRECTOR

Coach2Action | April 2023 - April 2025

Directed an independent training and development practice delivering learning and coaching programmes to organisations and to individuals.

- Developed and delivered high-quality learning content supporting continuous professional development and growth within client organisations
- Facilitated training in Change Management, and in leadership and management development
- Delivered Customer Service training programmes
- Provided personal and professional career development coaching, including support for individuals managing the transition into a management role

BUSINESS MANAGER – RENTAL DISCOUNTING

Nedbank | June 2017 - March 2023

Provided asset finance solutions to businesses operating in the asset rental market, holding accountability for credit assessment, deal structuring and the ongoing performance of the portfolio.

- Assessed affordability through detailed evaluation of client financial statements, forming a view on the capacity of the business to service the facility
- Conducted risk assessments covering both the risks inherent in the rental itself and the reliability of the end customer
- Structured rental agreements against client income and affordability, balancing commercial return against credit risk
- Managed a portfolio of rental discounting facilities, monitoring that repayments were met timeously and intervening where accounts moved outside expected performance
- Handled client expectations efficiently across the life of each facility, resolving queries and maintaining the working relationship

REGIONAL SALES SUPPORT MANAGER – PERSONAL LOANS

Nedbank | March 2016 - May 2017

Managed the Personal Loans function across the regional retail structure, with responsibility for staff capability, sales process and performance reporting.

- Onboarded new appointments and ensured their training requirements were identified and met

- Optimised the sales process, ensuring all staff held the tools, systems and processes required to handle loan applications efficiently
- Coached regional sales teams towards target attainment, covering performance tracking, schedule management and the swift resolution of issues affecting delivery, and supported the sales force in resolving client queries so that complaints were handled effectively and service standards upheld
- Produced regular sales reporting and led review meetings, providing insight into performance trends and managing delivery against KPIs

BRANCH MANAGER

Nedbank | November 2010 - February 2016

Accountable for the full operation of the branch, spanning service delivery, staff leadership, sales growth, compliance and financial performance.

- Directed day-to-day branch operations, managing staff schedules, operational flow and branch processes so that financial products and services reached customers accurately and on time, and so that service quality and customer relationships were maintained
- Led and supervised the full branch complement across tellers, enquiries, back office and sales, running weekly meetings, training and formal evaluation, with one-on-one coaching for both strong and under-performing staff against agreed goals, and managed recruitment end to end from screening and interview design through to onboarding
- Developed and executed sales and business development strategy, growing the customer base through service quality, upselling, cross-selling and lead generation across internal partnerships, and built relationships with local businesses to drive new business acquisition
- Managed the branch budget, controlling costs and ensuring profitability
- Maintained compliance and risk management in line with internal policy, regulatory requirement and legal standard, and resolved complex matters spanning customer complaints, internal conflict and staffing decisions
